

Lesson 04: Example Promo Scripts

Two examples of scripts are here, plus a blank template. Do not copy these, your script has to be about your own site.

Remember the limits: about 45 words, two lego characters max, say the site name at the end, and it has to time out at 17 seconds or under when you read it out loud.

Example 1: Paws and Play (a pet care business)

43 words. Two characters: OWNER and NEIGHBOR.

Seconds	Who	Line	What's on screen
0–4	OWNER	My dog chewed the couch. Again.	Lego figure standing next to a wrecked couch, head in hands
4–8	NEIGHBOR	Paws and Play has you covered. Twenty minutes, twice a day, rain or shine.	Second figure walks in, holds up a leash
8–13	NEIGHBOR	Daily walks, drop-in visits, and photos of your dog while you're at work.	Two figures walking a brick-built dog past a tree
13–15	OWNER	Wait. Photos?	Owner turns, surprised
15–17	NEIGHBOR	Every single day.	Neighbor holds up a paper "phone" with a photo on it
17–20	OWNER	Book it at Paws and Play.	Both figures still, site name in big text across the screen

Shot list for Example 1

One line per picture setup. You'll shoot 40 to 60 pictures total, so each setup below is a small handful of pictures with tiny movements between them.

1. Owner beside the wrecked couch, hands moving to head
2. Neighbor enters from the left, walking in small steps
3. Neighbor raises the leash
4. Both figures walking left to right past the tree, dog between them
5. Owner turns to face the neighbor

- Neighbor lifts the paper phone
- Both figures still, facing forward, holding for the site name

Example 2: Northgate (a band)

38 words. Two characters: FAN A and FAN B.

Seconds	Who	Line	What’s on screen
0–4	FAN A	You’re late. The show already started.	One figure at a door, arms crossed
4–9	FAN B	Relax. Northgate’s site has the whole tour schedule.	Second figure runs up, points at a paper “screen”
9–14	FAN B	Every song, and the new album, free to listen to first.	Close shot on the paper screen with a track list drawn on it
14–16	FAN A	Free?	Figure turns toward the screen
16–20	FAN B	Northgate. Go listen.	Both figures facing forward, site name in big text

Atlas Technologies

Fill this in on paper first. Time it out loud with your partner before you show it to Mr. McMaster.

Seconds	Who	Line	What’s on screen
0–4	person A	I used to think pain and fatigue were just part of being human	two people talking
4–14	Person B	Until you realize they’re just design flaws.	two people discussing the old day
14–20	Person A	Exactly. Atlas technology’s neural implants gave me back my sight—and then some.	the two poeple finish there conversation

Word count: _32 (aim for about 45)

Timed reading: 15__ seconds (has to be 17 or under)

Blank shot list

1. the old man reaching for his back
 2. other old man stretching with a younger mans ease
 3. them having the conversation
 4. them continueing the coversation
 5. first old man apearing more youthfull
